DEVELOPING COMPETENT CONTRIBUTING CITIZENS FOR A CHANGING WORLD

SCHOOL DISTRICT UNIVERSITY PLACE

Volume 36 Number 3 Summer 2016

Curtis 2016 Graduation

“As you accept your diplomas and head out into the world, and as you watch your friends do the same, know that you are part of a special legacy that no other school can match. You are a graduate from the best high school in the State of Washington. As long as you work hard, as long as you exhibit Viking P.R.I.D.E. in what you do and are guided by the character traits and values of perseverance, respect, integrity, determination, and excellence that you have learned from your parents and from your teachers, you will succeed....The class of 2016 is a special class; a class with whom Curtis teachers and staff are privileged to be associated, a class that I am proud to present to the community at large.”

Eric Brubaker,
Principal

“I transferred into the University Place School District when I was 13 years old.... The previous six years of my life had been spent at a small, local private school.... I found myself walking through the doors of Narrows View Intermediate School ...full of the unearned confidence that came from years of being told that I was better than the significant portion of the population that went to a public school. Allow me to let you guys in on a little secret: I wasn't any better at school than my seventh grade classmates. As a matter of fact, I was worse. I can honestly say that transferring into the UP School District and being immediately surrounded by the most hardworking, intelligent group of students that I've ever met was a humbling experience for me, but also necessary.”

Kellen Eid,
Senior Class President

“We talk about Viking Pride, and my words to you tonight revolve around that P.R.I.D.E. The “P” is for perseverance. It's okay to fall short, or fail. Often we learn so much more from our shortcomings and mistakes than we do if we succeed the first time out. “R” is for respect. Respect yourself, and give respect to others. Make someone's day better, not worse...people may not remember what you said, but they will remember how you made them feel. “I” is for integrity. Be a person of your word, and back it up with your actions. Don't let other people define you, and don't compare yourself to others. “D” is for determination. Be willing to take calculated risks, and step out of your comfort zone. Years from now, you don't want to have regrets about opportunities lost. “E” is for excellence. Be the best version of yourself. You ARE worth your highest goals.”

Gail Cowan,
Family & Consumer Science & Health Teacher

Washburn Named Teacher of the Year as She Retires

University Place Primary teacher Jan Washburn was named Teacher of the Year in the district for 2015-16, a final accolade in her amazing 41-year career at the school. “Growing up, for some reason I just always knew what I wanted,” she said. “I would tell everyone I was going to graduate from Pacific Lutheran University, and I was going to teach.” According to Washburn, her father was a superintendent in the Puyallup District and her mother was a school secretary, so education just called to her from a young age. She did, in fact, graduate from PLU in 1975 and got her first job at UP Elementary—as it was then called—teaching second grade. After 15 years she moved to third grade, and spent the last 26 years there. “It is such a privilege to be entrusted with these young lives and see them progress. That is the most meaningful work I can imagine, and it has been 41 years of pure joy and satisfaction. My three children knew that although I was away from home a lot during the school year, it was something important I was doing. I was and am very committed to the kids under my care.” That same passion for teaching will keep her involved in the district after her retirement, mentoring new teachers at various schools around UPSD. When she is not working part-time in that capacity, Washburn says she intends to spend more time with her kids and five grandchildren, travel more often, and get more involved with her church.

Additional copies of this issue of the Dialog newsletter are available at the district office front desk.
