Chris Burns Named University Place Teacher of the Year for 2014-15

"Our UPSD music programs have always been a source of pride," said Executive Director of Teaching and Learning Jeff Loupas, "and as a Narrows View Intermediate orchestra teacher since 2012, Chris Burns has worked tirelessly to elevate our middle grades orchestra program to new levels." In addition to his regular teaching assignment, Burns teaches fourth-grade strings, and contributes countless hours outside the classroom supporting district-wide music events and programs. He also serves as a motivating example to students as an accomplished professional musician, performing with the Tacoma Symphony.

"Tonight we recognize and celebrate the members of the senior class. They are internally driven and consistently demonstrate a genuine concern for others...so much so that this year's seniors collectively gave over 7,000 hours of their time to serving their community."

> Eric Brubaker Principal

Bob Robinson Social Studies Teacher

"Curtis High School is the people that the school is composed of, which separates it from every other academic institution. The community members, teachers, students, and administration exuding Viking Pride...are all a part of the rich tradition that makes this graduation ceremony so distinguished."
